

I believe that the FCC in this matter is restricting the choices that I am entitled to under the Constitution. My decision to purchase subscription satellite radio transmissions thru XM Radio should allow me to purchase those services that are offered. The quality and content of radio is my choice and it is not available to me elsewhere and I urge the rejection of NAB petition 04-160. This petition will restrict my choice and ability to make free choices